

Paul Phillips

Paul Phillips is a database manager at Denver Human Services working to integrate software applications in multiple veterans programs. He has worked

Paul is a certified peer specialist with the Veterans Administration Hospital in Denver serving veterans with mental health and addiction issues. He has over 10 years of firsthand experience working with the homeless and individuals with addictions Paul has also served as program coordinator for a non-profit organization working with adults and at-risk youth adjusting to society after incarceration.

In the military, Paul served as staff sergeant in the U.S. Army in military intelligence-reconnaissance throughout Southeast Asia, Central America and the Middle East.

Paul has an electro/mechanical engineering degree from Herzing College in Minnesota. He is a Chicago native and a diehard Cubs fan.